

Who is MCM?

Through an intertwined, three-pillar foundation, Monte Christo Ministries aims to meet basic needs such as hunger and HIV/AIDS relief; encourage discipleship through life-skills training, Christian camps and an internship program; and work toward sustainability. MCM was formed in late 2004 and is fully qualified under Section 21 of the South African law as a permitted non-profit charitable organization. A board of South African and American directors leads ministry activities in communities such as Mbekweni, Paarl East, central Paarl and Porterville.

MCM's mission

To be a Christ-centered, empowering ministry that unites the body of local and international Christian churches and cultural groups to uplift the poor, disciple and equip the next generation of Christian leaders and support the local church by advancing the Kingdom of God in the Paarl valley, the Western Cape, South Africa and the world.

why donate olive trees?

An olive tree provides a crop for 100 years, so your gift paves the way for a ministry rooted in sustainability. South Africa will still be reaping the harvest of the Promise Olive Grove 100 years from now.

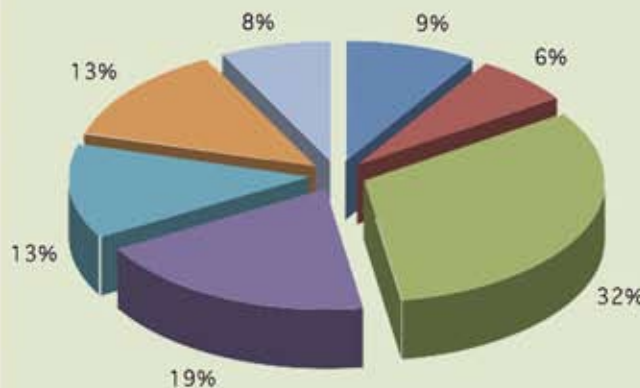

donate a tree, and...

- feed the hungry in the Paarl Valley
- support the MCM Food Center
- contribute to HIV/AIDS relief projects
- get kids off the street and into the sports program
- raise up Christian leaders through the discipleship program
- encourage unity among local churches
- give the gift that lasts more than 100 years!

*all donations are tax-deductible.

how is my donation allocated?

- Planting: first-year costs
- Nurturing: first five years of maintenance
- Promise Olive Grove: pay off farm
- Food Center: feeding operations
- MC House: debt reduction
- Ministry: funding to areas in need
- Management: office expenses
